The screenshot shows the Google News homepage. At the top, there's a menu bar with FILE, EDIT, VIEW, FAVORITES, TOOLS, and HELP. Below the menu are standard browser controls for zooming and window management. A toolbar includes icons for back, forward, home, search, and stop. The URL bar shows 'LOCATION: www.news.google.com'. On the left, there's a sidebar with 'GOOGLE' and 'BOOKMARKS' buttons, and tabs for 'SEARCH', 'PAGE RANK', and 'HIGHLIGHT'. The main content area features the Google News logo and a search bar. Below the search bar, it says 'Search and browse 4,500 news sources updated continuously.' followed by a counter '605' and a link to 'Custom News'. There are two large search buttons: 'Search News' and 'Search the Web'. To the right of the search area, there's a link to 'Advanced Search'. The main content is organized into sections like 'Top Stories' and 'World'. The 'Top Stories' section lists several headlines with their respective links and last update times. The 'World' section has a single entry. Other sections include U.S., Business, Sci/Tech, Sports, Entertainment, and Health. The 'Business' section contains a detailed story about Ariel Sharon's peace plan and its impact on the peace process. The 'Sports' section has a link to the 'Lord of the Rings' record. The 'Entertainment' section has a link to the 'Hong Kong Scientists Work on SARS' story. The 'Health' section has a link to the 'US Voices Misgivings on Chirac's Headscarves Stand' story.
